Editor, TIMES-VIRGINIAN, Appomattox, Va.Citizens Military Training Camp For Virginians Camp Meade, Maryland, August 1921.

Whereas, Provision has been made by the War Department to give military instruction in special training camps to 10,- 800 physically fit citizens of the United States, between the ages of 16 and 35 years, to be drawn from the several States in proportion to population; and Therefore, I, Westmoreland

Davis, Governor of Virginia do hereby heartily endorse and command the plan of the War Department to conduct Citizen's Military Training Camp and I urge all citizens of Virginia, who are eligible, at once to make application for admission to the

Citizen's Military Training

Camp to be held at Camp Meade

Maryland, during the month of August 1921, in order that they may receive training fitting them for immediate active service in the Virginia National Guard, and in the Army of the United States in the event of a National emergency.

Address applications for admission from Virginia to the

Citizen's Military Training

Camp to be held at Camp Mead to the Adjutant General of Virginia, at Richmond.

Westmoreland Davis,

Governor.

Buckingham

The Holiness Protracted meeting to be held at the Tabernacle near this place will be begin on July 22nd and will continue about ten days.

Hazel Rice and wife motored from their home in Chevy Chace Washington, D. C., to see his sister, Mrs. G. S. Morris, Saturday.

Neil A. McKay, of Tunstall, Va., is visiting at the home of

W. W. Haskins.

A meeting of the representatives of the Agricultural Clubs of the State of Va., will be held at Blacksburg from July 25th to August 1st. County Agent, Gordon A. Elean, will meet the boys and girls at Farmville and take them at a body to Blacksburg. The expenses for the whole trip will be between $15 and $18. It is the duty of every club member to attend this meeting if possible. The work done in the Agricultural Club and the Project work done in the Agricultural Course conducted by Prof. Henry Groseclose, of Buckingham Agricultural High school has done a lot to make farm life more livable and more profitable. Anything is well worth while that helps to make farm life more attractive and to make our boys and girls stay on the farms in the country that God made in stead of rushing to the over crowded cities made by man.

Prof. D. N. Davidson, former principal of the high school here was a visitor here Saturday.

Miss Virginia has returned from Rock Union where she attended the marriage of her brother.

Messrs. John G. Glover, T. B.

Hall, R. A. Hall, Mrs. Richard Elli, Mrs. John G. Glover and Miss Julia Swope motored to New Store church to hear Mr.

C. M. Barrel preach.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hall upon the arrival in their home of two little boys whose names are Charlie and Tom.

Evergreen

Mrs. Ruth Lopping, of Alex andria, has returned home after a visit to Mrs. W. B. Thomas.

Miss Mattie Farrar has returned home from a visit to Mrs. L. P. Paulett, of Lynchburg. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Paris and little son, of East Radford, are on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Walker.

tended the picnic at the Red

House.

Miss Eunice Ing, of Roanoke, visited Mrs. Jim Conner the past week-end.

Miss Mattie Chocklett is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Zack Cheatheam.

Ricamore—East

One of the most beautiful weddings ever witnessed at Appomattox was solemnized

Wednesday evening, June 29th, at 8:30 o'clock in Liberty Baptist church. The contracting parties were Miss Beatrice Elsner East, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.

P. East, and Lieut. Philip

Wallace, Ricamore of Berryville, Va. Lieut. Ricamore spent eleven months over seas during the World War and is now one of the instructors of the tank corps school at Camp

Meade.

The church was tastefully decorated in white and green, the altar being lighted with white candles in brass candle-labras. Just before the bridal party entered the church Miss Laura Allen played "Hearts and Flow" after which Mrs.

John A. Sears sang "I love you truly" and "At Dawning".

The bridesmaids and groomsmen,

Miss Oleo Caldwell, with Mr. John Curtis Caldwell, Miss

Neil Parker with Mr. John Elliott Cheatham entered the church to the strains of Thannahausers wedding march while immediately preceding the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Grace East, came the flower girl, little Miss Dorothy Price. They entered to Lobergrin's wedding march and were met at the altar by the groom and the best man,

Mr. Sheldon East. During the ceremony Loves Greeting was played softly on the organ and Mendelsohn's wedding march was rendered at the bridal party left the church.

The bride wore a band em-broderied gown of white satin and georgette and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley; her veil was caught with pearls.

The maid of honor wore pink satin and net, and carried an arm bouquet of sunburst roses.

The bridesmaids made effective the color scheme by wearing green and white organdie and carrying baskets of flowers trimmed in white and green tulle. The flower girl carried her flowers in a green basket tied with white tulle.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. L.

P. Ricamore of Berryville, Va.,

Miss Bessie Moog of Baltimore
